A Pretty home wedding took place on Friday evening when Miss Dorothy Hawk and Mr. Shirley Bush were married in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. S. Hawk, in Manoa valley, where an elaborate decorative scheme added to the beauty of the rooms.

In the drawing room an improvised bower was placed and the arrangement of flowers and ferns was very artistic. An improvised aisle through which the bridal party passed was very pretty. High pedestals held white baskets filled with white sweet peas; long graceful strands of tulle connected the pedestals. At the bower end, where the wedding service was read, were tall baskets holding dainty bouquets. The other rooms were prettily decorated with quantities of blossoms, the gifts of loving friends. Rev. John P. Erdman read the wedding service and while it was being read Miss Clementine Gifford sang very beautifully "Thou Art to Me," with violin obligato played by her brother, John Gifford, Mrs. W. L. Gifford being at the piano. Mr. Albert Bush played the wedding march. The bride was giving into her husband's keeping by her father, Mr. W. P. S. Hawk, on whose arm she leaned as she passed down the bridal aisle.

Cloth of silver, white tulle and all over lace formed the bride's gown, which was fashioned in the modish short length, the tulle veil serving as a train. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and white orchids, sweet peas forming the shower ends of the bouquet.

Miss Margaret Hawk, who was her sister's only attendant, wore a pretty frock of green taffeta with a silver lace and tulle overdress. She carried Cecil Bruner roses in the shower effect.

Mr. Gavin Bush supported the groom, his brother.

Little Katherine Warren preceded the bride, scattering rose petals in her path. She was frocked in a white mull with touches of pink and blue, with a pink butterfly bow in her hair. She wore about her neck a sapphire and pearl cross, the gift of her great grandmother.

The wedding supper followed the ceremony and the congratulations to the bride and bridegroom.

The wedding gifts were handsome and numerous.

MRS. FRANK BATCHELOR A BRIDGE HOSTESS

At the first of a series of bridge teas, Mrs. Frank B. Batchelor was hostess on Thursday afternoon. The rooms were pretty with quantities of Easter lilies and yellow cornucopias. Mrs. A. J. Wirtz scored highest and was given a cut-glass napkin ring, as was Mrs. W. H. Friedly. Mrs. C. J. Flebig was consoled with a pretty madras needlework centerpiece.

Those enjoying Mrs. Batchelor's hospitality were Mrs. Charles Crane, Mrs. J. G. Cohen, Mrs. C. T. Flebig, Mrs. W. H. Friedly, Miss Mabel Hair, Mrs. A. C. Lammiman, Mrs. R. B. Porter, Mrs. S. S. MR. AND MRS. C. W. CASE DEERING'S DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering were dinner host and hostess on Monday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hise of Kauai, who are here for a short visit.

The table was radiantly beautiful with masses of pink gladiolus and lacy ferns. Dainty name-cards were at each guest cover and lighted tapers shaded in pink added a soft luster to the board.

Mr. and Mrs. Deering's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hise, the honor guests; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Cooper, Miss Helen Alexander, Mr. W. Marsh and Mr. Auger.

COL. AND MRS. JAMES IRONS' DINNER PARTY

Col. and Mrs. James Irons presided at one of the largest dinners given in weeks when they entertained at the Moana on Sunday evening. The table was shaped like a horseshoe and around this table, prettily decorated with pale pink and pale lavender asters, the guests were seated. Col. and Mrs. Irons' guests were

Mrs. Harry Cobb (Helen Girvin), whose wedding was an event of Thursday evening.

General and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, Capt. and Mrs. George Clark, U. S. N., Col. and Mrs. Guy Palmer, Capt. and Mrs. Edwin S. Hartsborn, Capt. and Mrs. Alden C. Weller, Mrs. A. W. T.

COBB-GIRVIN

At a small home wedding on Wednesday evening Miss Helen Girvin was married to Mr. Harry Cobb, with about fifty relatives and close friends assembled.

Miss Sara Lucas, at the piano, announced the coming of the bride, who came into the drawing room leaning on the arm of Mr. William O. Smith, an old friend of the family, who gave her into the keeping of her husband.

The ceremony took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kopke on Kewalo street. The marriage service was read by Rev. John P. Erdman.

The bride, who is an extremely pretty girl of the blond type, was very daintily frocked in a simple white georgette, with a deep band of embroidery circling the border of her gown. The pointed collar was also embroidered. A tulle veil formed the train, it being held to the head by a point lace bridal cap. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white orchids, white gardenias and white sweet peas.

The drawing-room where the ceremony was performed was very dignified, decorated with white dignified lilies and white daisies.

The bride and groom will live at the Peninsula in the Waterhouse home until their own house is completed, now in construction. Miss Girvin belongs to one of the oldest families here and is a girl with a great deal of charm and individuality. Mr. Cobb is with the B. F. Dillingham Company. All of Honolulu wish them happiness for the years to come.

HENSHAW-HERBERT WEDDING NEXT WEEK

Next Thursday evening at St. Andrew's Cathedral will occur the wedding of Miss Rose Herbert and Mr. Marshall Henshaw. It will be the largest social event of the season. Miss Herbert will have five bridal attendants and the bride and her attendants are among the very prettiest girls in Honolulu; a beautiful wedding is anticipated. Miss Herbert's tall, girlish blonde beauty will make a stunning picture in her bridal robes. It is to be a large church wedding, to which all friends have been bidden, and the wedding supper will be served at home to the bridal party and relatives only.

MISS ROSIE HERBERT HONORS BRIDAL ATTENDANTS

Miss Rosie Herbert entertained at the Country Club this noon with a very pretty and jolly luncheon, those assembled being her coming bridal attendants. All play golf and so the table was appropriately ornamented with golf sticks, balls and miniature caddies. In the table center was an old-fashioned bouquet with a paper lace ruff and stacked about it were the golf clubs and balls. At each guest place was a box and in it was a sport pin, the gift of the bride-elect to her attendants. A jolly hour after luncheon was enjoyed and later Miss Herbert and her guests went to Kapiolani Park to take in the horse races.

The luncheon guests were Miss Alice Ward, Miss Vera Henshaw, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Dorothy Guild, Mrs. George Herbert and Mrs. Helen Noonan.
